Why Frances + McKee

Premium Product Sourcing

Identifying products that are of the same impressionable quality as your business is key. We put a strong focus on sourcing sustainably produced, local-to-your-region and small batch products that offer a customized uniqueness to make your gift stand out amongst the rest.

Hands-On Fulfillment

Quality control is at the top of our to-do list. Every item is personally inspected for perfection before being hand-placed into your boxes with meticulous precision. Rest assured your gifts are signed, sealed and delivered with care!

One-on-One Customer Service

It is our mission to exceed your expectations. This means asking the right questions, developing a seamless working relationship and unmatched customer service. We're here for you, down to every last detail.

"During the pandemic, it was quite difficult to show our clients how much we appreciated them when we were unable to see and/or meet with them. For the holiday seasons of 2020 and 2021, it was of utmost importance for KPMG to show appreciation for our clients.

Frances + McKee delivered far beyond expectations. Their responsiveness, logistical execution, and of course, the gift boxes were superb and much appreciated by our clients."

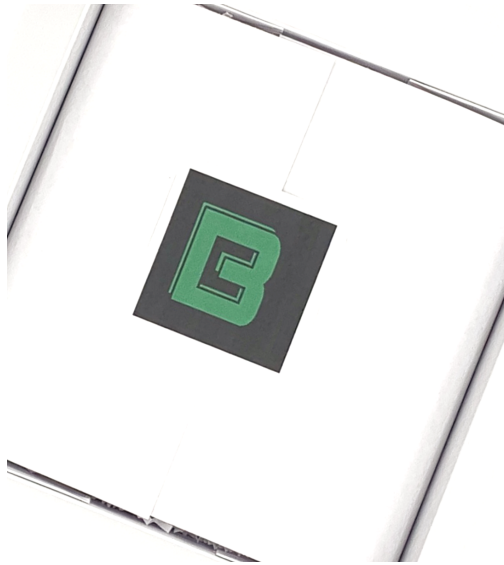

Ryan, KPMG Partner

"Frances + McKee delivered exactly what I was hoping for - a stand-out gift that was truly appreciated, leaving a lasting impression. Client gifting is so important I made one call and knew immediately I could trust them to get it right, and they did.

I will be using Frances + McKee for all our future client gifting"

Lloyd, Streamcare Vice President of Sales
